

About

Who are we? We are a group of Christians who desire to be obedient to Jesus Christ's command to "...Go and make disciples of all nations..." (Matthew 28:19). We lean towards a more conservative/orthodox understanding of the Bible.

The purpose of this site: The primary purpose of this site is allow us to continue communication with those to whom we have shared the Gospel (e.g. through the contact form). In addition, it is hoped that the site may provide answers to basic doctrines of the Christian faith, and important concepts for new Christians to consider.

Article material source: The articles contained on this site are written either by the site Admin, friends of the site Admin, or other material found either in print or on other websites (while complying with copyright requirements). If any breach of copyrighted material is found on Surrendered Life! please notify the Site Admin immediately.

More material will be added as time allows.